

Getting to Know Cows

All animals have different body parts and different habits that help them survive and thrive. Think about what you learned about dairy cows in the Milk from Farm to Table DVD.

Are these statements True or False ?		That's right!
1. All cows are mammals.		All animals are
2. A baby cow is called a colt.		different in some
3. All cows are girls. Boys are called bulls.		ways and alike in
4. Cows have hair, teeth and eyelashes.		•
5. Holsteins (black and white cows) are the only cows that make milk.		other ways.
6. A cow stores milk in her udder.	How o	are cows like humans?
7. Cows weigh almost 100 pounds when they are born.		are covering from and.
8. Cows need exercise, just like humans do.			_
9. Cows eat cowpies.			_
10. Cows get used to the habit of being milked. They like it.			_
11. Cows have three stomachs.			_
12. A cow has her first calf when she is about 2 years old.	How	are cows different from huma	ns?
13. Cows like to lay down to rest.			_
14. When a cow brings up some food she has already eaten from her stomach back into her mouth, then rechews it, it's called "chewing her mud".			_
15. Cows wear ear tags and leg bands because they like to look pretty.			_